Erase me from your tainted world
I have grown strong and become so bold
You can't handle this mass debris
And I no longer feel to be free

Why can't you know the way I feel
This pain and torture is so unreal
Every second I'm barely awake
You scar my thoughts till I almost break

You burn through my soul
And replenish the scalded hole
Why must I stay
Forever this way

All I long for you to do
Is all these things I ask from you
You're the woman in my land
I just need you to understand

Why can't you see that you're torturing me
The feelings I have all just long to be free
Why can't you hate me, smash me, erase me
Kill me
Kill me
Kill me
Kill me
