I don't understand how things got so out of hand.
If you could feel my soul, you'd know why I lost control.

I don't understand how things got so out of hand.
If you could feel my soul you'd know why I lost control.

Thought I'd be a better man, so much more than what I am.

I can't believe I took a life.
I'll never forget the look in his eyes!

Chorus:
I don't need you to judge me.
I already judged myself!
And if I had it all to do again.

I'd do something else!

Please Ma don't you cry, I see the shame thats in your eyes.
I know you had all your dreams of how your little boy would be.

How I hate to see it end, say goodbye to all my friends.
First stop for me will be a cell, then it's straight on in to Hell!

Chorus:
I don't need you to judge me.
I already judged myself!
And if I had it all to do again.
I'd do something else!

I'd do something else!
