Don't hunt what you can't kill.
The heart is strong but wheres the will?
Go ahead boy scream and shout at the world.
And let them know exactly how you feel!

Chorus:

And it tears at my insides
As you lose your pride.
A broken man you gave it your all.
And you know you can't stand tall.

You lived your life in constant pain.
A life of struggle to stay sane.
You better fight or you're gonna fall.

So go ahead boy, and give it your all!

Chorus:X2

And it tears at my insides
As you lose your pride.
A broken man you gave it your all.
And you know you can't stand tall.

Can't stand Tall!

Chorus:

And it tears at my insides
As you lose your pride.
A broken man you gave it your all.
And you know you can't stand tall.

No you can't stand tall.
Can't stand tall!
