"Sorrow Tomorrow"

Written & Performed by Bobby Darin

Sorrow tomorrow.

Sorrow tomorrow.

Making eyes at all the guys,
while you dance with me.
I must be blind to love your kind,
cause it's so plain to see.

If I should love you for more than tonight,
There would be sorrow; there would be heartache.
There would be sorrow tomorrow.

Having fun with anyone;
Living for today.
My aching heart is torn apart;
I just can't live that way.

If I should love you for more than tonight,
There would be sorrow; there would be heartache.
There would be sorrow tomorrow.

Trouble's waiting just around the corner;
Heartache's waiting just around the bend.
I don't want to think about tomorrow;
Cause tomorrow my happiness could end.

I ask my pride to step aside;
I know this love is so wrong.
Can't stand the pain of loving in vain;
It's not where I belong.

If I should love you for more than tonight,
There would be sorrow; there would be heartache.
There would be sorrow tomorrow.

You believe me,
There would be sorrow; there would be heartache.
There would be sorrow tomorrow.

I know that you know,
There would be sorrow; there would be heartache.
There would be sorrow tomorrow.
