he side of me, it's killing me
Now I know

This is the last time
I tear my heart out for you
No, this time I let it go
This is the last time
I tear my heart out

Help me I can't feel
Show me am I real

Everything I ever said to you
Everything I ever did
It kills me

So now I set you free
Everything I ever said to you
Everything I ever did
It kills me
I did it all for you

Is this the last time
I tore my heart out for you
No, last time I let it go
This is the last time
I tear my heart out

Help me I can't feel
Show me am I real

Loss for words, final breath
After it all there is nothing left
Loss for words, final breath
After it all there is nothing

Everything I ever said to you
Everything I ever did
It kills me, so now I set you free
And every word I ever said was true
I didn't mean to you

And every word I ever said was true
I didn't mean to you
