I love to hear you talk
And I love to watch your head move
I love to tune you in every night
And I love to watch you with ice cream
Chocolate chip, with a little whipped cream
I love to hear your opinion
And I love to share it with all of my friends
I love to feel so informed
I love to watch your little mouth
Because you're just too much
The way you smile
The way you dress
The way you stress
Sometimes I get to wondering what it is you're talking about
I love to hear your opinion
And I love to share it with all of my friends
I love to
I love to
I love to
But I don't want to
But you're just too much
The way you smile
The way you dress
The way you stress
Sometimes I get to wondering what it is you're talking
about
You're just too much
I can't control myself
The way you stress certain items
These things stick out to me, too
I love you
