Girl, I've been lonely
I've been lost in the shadows
I found my way a thousand times

But this time it's different
'Cause my heart's been so empty
There's desperation on my mind

I sailed the ocean ? now my ships wrecked at the shore
The stars I followed ? I can't see them anymore

Angel of the dawn ? night is coming on
Won't you heal me, save my soul
Open up my heart ? take me through the dark
'Cause tonight, I cry ? for my soul

You know, I've been loving

I've been hurting and healing
The ways of life ? I've seen a few

But time is a teacher
And I fear that I'm changing
Now I'm just longing to be true

The road I travelled ? now it's washed into the sea
The tide is rising ? won't you come and set me free>

Angel of the dawn ? night is coming on
Won't you heal me, save my soul
Open up my heart ? take me through the dark
'Cause tonight, I cry ? for my soul
