Time is running out, man -
Slipping through your hands
Anger and confusion in your eyes
Your ticket for the big time -
Down the drain it went
And now you find it hard to compromise
Your vision, it pushes you on -
You just can't let go
But now that it all seems gone wrong -
It's this you should know

Wherever you are - whatever you do
When life's got you down -
And dreams don't come true
Don't give it up - trust in your heart
When nobody else will care -
I will be there

Shiny wheels of fortune - never standing still
Turning on the wise man and the fool
But when you're left with nothing -
You can see what's real
And all you got to do's keep your cool

The clockwork keeps pushin' you on -
It's driving you mad
You find yourself all on your own -
But don't you forget

Wherever you are - whatever you do
When life's got you down -
And dreams don't come true
Don't give it up - trust in your heart
When nobody else will care -
I will be there

Wherever you are - whatever you do
When life's got you down -
And dreams don't come true
Don't give it up - trust in your heart
When nobody else will care

Whatever may come - I'll be by your side
Way out in the storm -
Deep down in the night
Guarding your heart, guiding your way
I will be there - I will be there...
