The wind blows cold through the heart of the silence
I dream of you - you're still on my mind
'Cause since you're gone
I'm lost in the darkness
Roaming the circles of time
Here I am -
On the way to the truth of my heart
Just a man -
Holding on to a dream torn apart
Way down in this heart
I lost my head in the heat of the moment
Caught in a rage - denying the truth
I lost my head -
Now I'm learning the hard way
I just can't move on - without you
Carved in my heart -
The days of the summer
Your shining eyes - the wind in your hair
But now the rain is blinding my window
It's just a fate I can't bear
Here I am -
On the way to the truth of my heart
Just a man -
Holding on to a dream torn apart
Deep down in this heart
I lost my head in the heat of the moment
Caught in a rage - denying the truth
I lost my head -
Now I'm learning the hard way
I just can't move on - without you
I lost my head in the heat of the moment
Caught in a rage - denying the truth
I lost my head - now I'm longing for shelter
And nothing to save me - making it through Without you - without you - without you
There's nothing to save me -
Making it through
Without you
