The wind of the west -
It whispers and calls
A dirge to the still of night
I'm lying awake -
And sorrow is on my mind

Cause baby i know -
We must make a move
This world's running out of time
There's a force that keeps pushing me on
I can feel it inside

This burning heart -
Sets my soul on fire
And the power of hope
Is rising up through my veins
This burning heart -
Drives my souls desire
Time and time again

A world in a daze -
In fear and confused
Is rising before my eyes
We run from the truth -
Too blind for the signs of time

There's a vision of justice and peace
Living on in our souls
There must be a way better than this
And i'm longing to go

This burning heart -
Sets my soul on fire
And the power of hope
Is rising up through my veins
This burning heart -
Drives my souls desire
Time and time again

[Guitar Solo]

This burning heart

This burning heart -
Sets my soul on fire
And the power of hope
Is rising up through my veins
This burning heart -
Drives my souls desire
Time and time again
This burning heart...
