Man always under his brother's hand
The wicked power of a devilish plan
You're risking your life in a pit of quicksand
It's a life that I surely don't understand
My body is the household of my soul
Respect is what you should expose
As time goes things between us grows cold
But it'll haunt you until the day you are old

(Chorus)

Our minds always need to be free
My soul seems to need to be free
You know I just need to be free
How long before you let me be free
My mind is always made up
But my heart it says just give up
Why must I drink from this bitter cup
Freedom's thrust is a bitter quest
A flash of light illuminating clearly
That your soul needs to love and to be
If you knew love you'd be free
In spite of this world you could see

(Chorus)

Our minds always need to be free
My soul seems to need to be free
You know I just need to be free
How long before you let me be free
Our minds always need to be free
My soul seems to need to be free
You know I just need to be free
How long before you let me be free

Free from the hatred you know
Free from the past long ago
Free to love as you go
From the heartaches you know
Free to speak as you feel
Free to see what is real
If you knew love you'd be free
In spite of this world you would see

Our minds always need to be free
My soul seems to need to be free
You know I just need to be free
How long before you let me be free.
