(Chorus)

You picked me up
When I was down
You put a smile on my face
Where there was a frown
You lift me up

When I'm down
You put a smile on my face
When you come around

You rescued me from a life of scorn
Before my life was tattered and torn
You knew my feelings were worn
And you come along and you stopped forlorn
When you beside me, my trouble flee
When you beside me, my inhibitions leave
You lifted me gently
Before I was blind but now I see

(Chorus)

You picked me up
When I was down
You put a smile on my face
Where there was a frown
You lift me up

When I'm down
You put a smile on my face
When you come around

You answered all my dreams
When you smile, I gleam
You know this love is really true
Cause baby love is something you do
And as we live this life together
Knowing those doubts, fears, or whatever
Will cause us to look to better weather
And understanding will help us steer

(Chorus)

You picked me up

When I was down
You put a smile on my face
Where there was a frown
You lift me up
When I'm down
You put a smile on my face
When you come around
You picked me up
