so here we are - just you and me love's refugees again.
girl, it's been so long but still you are so close i guess the way we're feeling still remained the same.

so there they are - the memories bringing back the dreams we learned to hide and as we're looking back love is walking by leaving just a blossom for all the tears we cried.

take me up - just for one more time high above the shadows, of those long, lonely nights
hold me tight - just for one more time
'till the new morning's breaking.

two burning hearts - that's all we are turning back the time for just one night. but as we're moving on all our dreams remain
like a secret promise

before we said goodbye

high above the shadows, of those long, lonely nights
'till the new morning's breaking.

- guitar solo -

high above the shadows, of those long, lonely nights
'till the new morning's breaking.

'till the new morning's breaking.

'till the new morning light...
