Wish me well, say goodbye
I'll never tell I saw you cry
Understand, you're not to blame
It's just that the wind
The wind knows my name

And it's callin' me
Callin' me
Callin' me again

I think that you knew right from the start
There was this restlessness in my heart
It's a feeling that I have tried to tame
But it's hard when the wind
When the wind knows your name

And it's callin' me
Callin' me
Callin' me again

It's a cruel wind that tears us apart
But the worst thing is a tired and bitter heart
So dry your eyes, no more tears
(Hmm, hmm)
Hold me once and I'll walk out of here
(Hmm, hmm)
Who knows one day we'll meet again
(Hmm, hmm)
But don't wait for me 'cause the wind knows my name

And it's callin' me
Callin' me
Callin' me again
Yes, it's callin' me
Callin' me
Callin' me again

You carry on
