"Hour Of Need"

Visit "Hour Of Need" on MotoLyrics.com

You know that I'm foolish
Playing king for a day
I hang with my people
Whenever I can

You say that I'm scruffy
Misguided and blue
Like a fly on a string
There's a web that surrounds you
But I will find a way in

In you hour of need
I'll be there
Yes I will

You lay a place at your table
Let me sleep in your bed
You hurt and confuse me
My queen for a day

I know I'm foolish
Harsh and unfair
Cos my hour of need
I know you've always been there

In your hour of need
I'll be there
Yes I will
