Time to show some sharper teeth
Time to grow a thicker skin
Time to drop the seventh veil and let some madness
wander in
This is not a darker age
Just the turning of the wheel
I am here to reassure we never really had control
This world was never kind
Separate your present mind
Time to show some sharper teeth
Time to grow a thicker skin
Time to drop the seventh veil and let some madness
wander in.
What is luxury today will be necessity tomorrow
This is not a way of life
Your future past betrays its values
This world was never kind
Separate your present mind
Time to show some sharper teeth
Time to grow a thicker skin
Time to drop the seventh veil and let some madness
wander in
This is not a darker age
Just the turning of the wheel
I am here to reassure we never really had control
This world was never kind
Separate your present mind.
