She never had respect for me
She knew I had a family
But I blame it all on you

She used to be a friend to me
And now I can't stand to see
Her when she comes around

See both of y'all let me down
And now it's all over town
How could you do me that way? Oh baby

Now that I got me a brand new man
You can't even understand
She's been wondering where we stand
I ain't got time you can have that man

Now that I got me a brand new home
I don't have to be alone
Got somebody who understands
I got a brand new man

See everything was cool with us
But you took advantage of my trust
Your crossed my faith in you, yes, you did

He used to belong to me
How silly could you both be
I knew it all the time, yeah yeah yeah yeah

I never thought you would do those things you did
Are you even concerned what I told the kids?
(What I told the kids? 'Cause I cried, yes, I cried baby)

Now it don't matter 'cause baby I'm over you Can't forgive you for the stress you put me through (For the stress you put me through)
(But what goes around, comes right back around again)

Now that I got me a brand new man
You can't even understand

She's been wondering where we stand
I ain't got time you can have that man

Now that I got me a brand new home
I don't have to be alone
Got somebody who understands
I got a brand new man

If you ever been hurt keep your head up
You been hurt, keep your head up, you'll find love
If you ever been hurt keep your head up
You been hurt keep your head up, keep it up

If you ever been hurt keep your head up
If you been hurt, keep your head up, you'll find love
If you ever been hurt keep your head up
You been hurt keep your head up, keep it up

If you ever been hurt keep your head up
You been hurt, keep your head up, you'll find love
If you ever been hurt keep your head up
You been hurt keep your head up, keep it up
