I've seen the lightning flashing
Heard the thunder roll, roll
I feel the cold winds blowing
Trying to conquer my soul

If I just hold my peace
Let the Lord fight my battles
If I can keep the faith
Through the night

And if I tell
I hear the voice of reason
Telling me to fight on
'Cuz I've come to far to turn around

Weeping may endure for a night
But joy is gonna come tomorrow
Though I go through the fire
I shall come out as pure gold

When problems come just keep the faith
It won't be long until the day
Things will turn around
If you just, just stand your ground

If I just hold my peace, let the Lord fight my battles
If I can keep the faith through the night
If I just hold my peace, let the Lord fight my battles
If I can keep the faith through the night

When problems come just keep the faith
It won't be long until the day
Things will turn around
If you just, just stand your ground

I only have to keep the faith
I only have to keep the faith, the faith
I only have to keep the faith
I only have to keep the faith, the faith

If I just hold my peace, let the Lord fight my battles
If I can keep the faith through the night

I only have to keep the faith, the faith
I only have to keep the faith
I only have to keep the faith, the faith

I only have to keep the faith
I only have to keep the faith, the faith
I only have to keep the faith
I only have to keep the faith, the faith

I only have to keep the faith
I only have to keep the faith, the faith
I only have to keep the faith
I only have to keep the faith, the faith
