Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah.
Ohhhh Yeah Yeah.
Mmmmmmm.

6years 5months that's how long we've been having this thing we've got,
Every moment hasn't been perfect but still when it's perfect it feels like we're the only two people who have something real.
Now 3years 2weeks that's how long we've been raising our family, and I wouldn't go trading the love that we got,
So don't go changing I love you just the way you are.

It's true love, when you say you need me like I need you
and you can't be without me like I can't be without you,
It's true love.
When we spend time talking on the phone cause when
we're not around eachother, we don't wanna be alone.
It's true love love love love.
Don't ya know that it's good to be in love love love love.
Just believe me truthfully,
Cause love is never ever making me cry,
Before I tell you a lie, I'll give my life cause that's true love.

Now when the loves right somehow you just know,
Because you hold it tight and you don't wanna let it go,
It's so deep inside of you that you just can't take it cause, it fills up your heart and you just, you can't replace it no no.

Somebody's making love, nonstop tonight,
And they can't make enough, I know what it feels like.

Grab your lover by the hand, say that you understand how love really works, it's so good that it hurts.

It's true love, when you say you need me like I need you
and you can't be without me like I can't be without you,
It's true love.

When we spend time talking on the phone cause when
we're not around eachother, we don't wanna be alone.
It's true love love love love.
Don't ya know that it's good to be in love love love love.
Just believe me truthfully,
Cause love is never ever making me cry,
Before I tell you a lie, I'll give my life cause that's true
love.

Cause I don't need nobody but you in my life oh baby.
No no no.

Those who really understand what I'm saying sing
along with me say I...

Cause I don't need nobody but you in my life oh baby.
No no no.

Those who really understand what I'm saying sing
along with me say it's...

It's true love, when you say you need me like I need you
and you can't be without me like I can't be without you,
It's true love.

When we spend time talking on the phone cause when
we're not around eachother, we don't wanna be alone.
It's true love love love love.
Don't ya know that it's good to be in love love love love.
Just believe me truthfully,
Cause love is never ever making me cry,
Before I tell you a lie, I'll give my life cause that's true love.
