I'm gonna find my way back to you
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)

I lie in bed and watch the shadows
Dancin' across the wall
Nothin' to do but think of you
And count the tears that fall

Oh, how I wish it was real
I wish I could feel you holding me close
The only thing I know for sure
Is I should've never let you go

I would walk the world across the sea
Journey beyond the moon
I try anything, go anywhere
To find my way back to you

I still don't understand the reason
I think I was just afraid
(What can I say?)
All I can do is face the truth
And deal with the mess that I made

Now all I want is the chance
To take it back and go on like this, oh
(On like this)
'Cause ever since we said goodbye
I've been lost in loneliness

I would walk the world across the sea
Journey beyond the moon
I try anything, go anywhere
To find my way back to you

Now baby I was wrong, now that you're gone
The only thing left to do
Is spend every day, try every way
To find my way back to you

I know that I was a fool to push you away
And if you let me back in your life

Baby, I swear all my heart and
In your arms I will stay
Yea, yea

Baby, I would walk, baby
(I would walk the world across the sea)
Journey beyond the moon
I try anything, go anywhere
To find my way back to you
(Find my back to you)

Baby I was wrong, now that you're gone
(That you're gone)
The only thing left to do
Is spend every day, try every way
(Try every way)
To find my way back to you
(Find my way back to you)

I would walk the world across the sea
(Back to you, back to you)
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
I try anything, go anywhere
(To find my way back to you)

Baby I was wrong, now that you're gone
Is spend every day, try every way
(Wanna come back to you)

Baby, I'm gonna find my way back to you
Back to you
