Hold me
Like there's no tomorrow
There can be no sorrow
Right here where we stand

Living
Only for a moment
All I ever wanted
Is right here in my hands

Some will say
That we're sure to fall
Try to build their walls
Between us, yeah

No way over it
No way around it, boy
If we want it
We have to go through it
Fight for love
And the world tries to break us down
But the world will bend
And the fight will end
Love will always win

Hold on
'Til we see tomorrow
There is time to borrow
'Til we own our own

Walk on
And our hearts will lead us
But our hearts will need us
To be steady and strong

So we can stand
And face the fire
Burning higher
Surrounding us, yeah

No way over it
No way around it, boy

If we want it
We have to go through it
Fight for love
And the world tries to break us down
Oh, but the world will bend
And the fight will end
Love will always win

No way over it
No way around it, boy
If we want it
We have to go through it
Fight for love
And the world
Tries to break us down
But the world will bend
Ooh
And the fight will end
The world will bend
And the fight will end
Love will always win
