Faith Hill & Tim McGraw

We've been friends, ooh a long, long time
You tell me your secrets and I tell you mine She's left you all alone and you feel like no-one cares
But I never failed you, I've always been there

You tell your story, it sounds a bit like mine
It's the same old situation, it happens every time Can't we see, oh maybe you and me
Is what's meant to be, or do we disagree

What if I told you (what if I said) that I love you How would you feel, what would you think, what would
we do
Do we dare to cross that line between your heart and mine
Or would I lose a friend (or find a love that would never end)
What if I said

She doesn't love you, oh it's plain to see
I can read between the lines of what you're telling me And he doesn't hold you the way a woman should be held
How long can I go on keeping these feelings to myself

So what if I told you (what if I said) that I love you How would you feel, what would you think, what would
we do
mine
Or would I lose a friend (or find a love that would never end)
What if I said

Oh we've both had our share of loneliness
So who's to say that we can't have a bit of happiness And if I feel glad in you (it would make our dreams come true)
Or would you walk away (hear what I have to say)

What if I told you (what if I said) that I love you How would you feel, what would you think, what would
we do

Oh do we dare to cross that line between your heart and mine
IÂ've always wondered from the day that we met What if I said (what if I said) Ooh, what if I said
