A public bathroom wall reflects your whole self worth
You scrawl you racist ploy and you smear us with your dirt

You hatred is so puny no love lost for fellow man
Injecting the seeds of hate you die by your own hand

Holding high your swastika engrain it on your skin

Your personal ethnic cleansing won't save you in the end

Ignorance will kill your truth God alone can save you
Blindness is your life bigotry is your view

It's all about respect
Ignorance and fear
Raised by fools
Fear within
