These are the best times
The moments we can't let slip away
Lifes little game we play
Living from day to day

But once in a lifetime
A minute like this is ours to share
Remember these moments well
For moments like these are rare
As dreams and golden rainbows
Soft as nights when summer wind blows by
Together we laugh, we cry
Together we learn to fly

These are the best times

These are the best times

Come take my hand
Together we'll cross the timeless sand
Chasing the endless sun
Living our lives as one
Living our lives as one

These are the best times
Living our lives as one
These are the best times
Living our lives as one
These are the best times
Living our lives as one
These are the best times
Living our lives as one
