Hey
Hey come on let's go,
I wanna see your soul,
running through that door,
I've got a seed to sow,

hey come on let's go,
I wanna see your soul,
running through that door,
I've got a seed to sow,

hey come on let's go,
I wanna see your soul,
are you running through that door?,
are you running through that door?

Oh the sand sand sand,
the sand scratches my face, while the tears tears tears, they fall in my embrace,

and the waves crash down, where the rocks meet the sand, why do none of these fears come out on dry land?,
just when I'm drowning,
just when I'm drowning.

Hey, Hey come on lets go,
I wanna see your soul,
running through that door,
I've got a seed to sow,
hey come on let's go,
I wanna see your soul.

And I howl howl howl,
as you roll down the stairs, yeah the light crashes in,
I don't blame you not being there, and the round round round, you came right round my place, in the half light,

I can't see what I can't face.

You look like you're drowning,

I look like I'm drowning.

the sand scratches my hand,
and the tears tears tears, keep falling where I stand, yeah the waves crash down,

where the rocks meet my face,
why do none of these fears come out?,
help find this place,

just when I'm drowning,

in the cold light,

you're the cruel cool cool cool light on my face,
you're the cool cool cruel cool light on my face.

Yeah the sand sand sand,
and your tears tears tears, they keep falling where I stand, while the waves crash down,

where the rocks meet my face,
come find this place.

You look like you're drowning,
you look you're drowning,
hey,
