Go on, go on, go on, go on
Go on, go on, go on, go on
Go on, go on, go on, go on

You were struck at a very young age, by the light
In a sky full of rage you were sure
You had never been told what was right
Or what you needed to know

Don't hide, don't hide
Your love away
Go on, get away

I was robbed like never before you were hit
By the four to the floor the guitar
It was freaking you out so I left
With a head full of doubt

Don't hide, don't hide
Your love away

Please, I've been arrested by this scene
And then my crime was, I was there when you got beat
Your life in debt owes less than when you saved yourself, you'll see
And if it all begins, when can you begin with me?

Hey, don't hide, no, don't hide
Your love away
Go on, get away

Aw, you took a back seat
And you got no one to dance with
And all your questions
They just leave me with answers

And so imagine my surprise
When you slept in my disguise
And I said hey kid
Don't call me a genius

And don't hide, don't hide
Your love away

Please, I've been arrested by this scene
And in your heart
Knew I was there while you got beat

A life in debt owes less than when I hid myself, you'll see
And if it all begins, when do you begin with me?

And, hey, don't hide, no, no, no
Don't hide your love away

Please, I've been arrested by this scene
And in your heart
Knew I was there while you got beat

A life in debt owes less than when I hid myself, you'll
see
And if it all begins, when do we begin?
When can you begin with me?

Don't hide, ha, no, don't hide
Please, don't hide, no, don't hide
Your love away
