It doesn't exist -
You live in regret
I remember the kiss when we first met
I remember the sting
As you finished me off -
And I remember my face when you stopped -
And said

Kid, please try harder while you can
'Cos I'm so tired of it all
With no command.
And I said
Please try harder while you can
I'm now required by love
To be in command.

You're stuck here with me
And I'm stuck here with you
We'll walk through it all —
Like we used to.
And the things you'd forget
When we live without fear
I broke on the road —
And I'll be here, singing

Kid, please try harder while you can
'Cos I'm so tired of it all
And all your plans.
Can you please try harder while you can
I'm now required by love
To hold your hands.

You've been flashing white light
From the palms on your hands
You were ready to fight —
Or to land.
You're so easily led
You didn't know how to dance
So that's all you want
From romance.
(Well then, Kid)

Please try harder while you can
'Cos I'm so tired of a love
With all your plans
I said
Please try harder while you can
I'm now required by the law
To hold your hand.

(Can you try?)
(C'mon, try)
(C'mon, try)
(Can we try?)
(Could you try?)

Could you try?
You were flashing white light
From the palms of your hands
You were ready to fight -
Or to land.
You're so easily led
You didn't know how to dance
But if that's all you want
If this is all you want -
From romance.
