see the west, i'd ask you to open your eyes,
and guess, i never had an answer that's right, for this, i'll tell you in a little while yeah save the kid, you're looking for a reason to try i guess, the impetus is there in your smile, and yes, we'll do this in a little while

kids on overload
think you're coming home
the kids on overload
they think you're coming home
i don't know what you know

see the west, i'd ask you to open your eyes,
and guess, i never had an answer that's right,

save the kid, you're looking for a reason to try
i guess, the impetus is there in your smile,

see the west, i'd ask you to open your eyes,
and guess, i never had an answer that's right,

i guess, the impetus is there in your smile,
