

Faker "Voodoo Economics"

Visit "Voodoo Economics" on MotoLyrics.com

You got the curtain call
Before your hands were tied into the ground.
You got the kitchen hand job easily
You'll be king of this here town.
We're never gonna let you down.

You were pulling tips from nine til five
But that meant nothing without rhyme and elijah round.

So "Give them the kick" was what you said
Was a kiss to your bee stung lips
And the kiss to your bee stung lips
Was a kick to arithmetic.

I'll take voodoo economics
It's all about danger
You said take voodoo economics
It's all about danger
I want danger, Are you in danger?

You got all happenstance and Over it when I would drag you down.
You're pulling faces all the time
They mean nothing,
They mean nothing,
They mean nothing,

"Give them the kick" was what you said
"Just you hang up your hands and quit"
So I hang up my hands and quit
Like a kiss to your bee stung lips

I'll take voodoo economics
It's all about danger
'Cause you said voodoo economics,
It's all about danger,
I'm in danger,
You're in danger,
I want danger,
I'm in danger.

You lost the kitchen hand job

before your head was thrown into the ground
You'll be king of this here town.
It's been a little while and I know it but you'll never never never ever never let me down and

"That's it"" was what you said
"Just you hang up you hands and quit"
So I hang up my hands and quit
Like a kiss to your bee stung lips

I'll take voodoo economics
It's all about danger
You said take voodoo economics
Is all about danger
I'm in danger
I'm in danger
Uh huh and I want danger
I want danger

So I hang up my hands and quit
Like a kiss to your bee stung lips
And I hang up my hands and quit
Like a kiss to your bee stung lips

You lost the kitchen hand job
Before your head was thrown into the ground.
