Six o' clock and I'll be ready
Lesson learned, my hands are steady
One more day, and I'll be home
Living with regret of what I've done
How could I waste what we have on her
We can't go out that way

Chorus:

I go to sleep by your side almost every night
I crave the feeling of your skin, as it presses against mine
Now that I'm so far from home
I know you're sleeping alone
You're hoping that I remember what you mean to me

I've always known where I was heading
Forgetting the fact that you're not ready
It's six o' clock, I'm all alone
Missing all I've left at home
How could I waste what we have on her
We can't go out that way

Repeat Chorus

I'm lost without you

Repeat Chorus

I remember what you mean to me
