She says he hardly ever holds her
She says he hardly pays her any mind
Been such a long time since he's told her
He used to talk about forever
Now he don't have the time
These daays he hardly ever loves her
Lookin' at her I find tht hard to believe
If it's true he's gonna lose her
If I have my way, it will be to me

CHORUS

My new girlfriend's got a boyfriend
They say that all is fair in love and war
My new girlfriend's got a boyfriend
And I'm ready to wage a war
I'm gonna hold her tighter
I'm gonna lover her like she's never
Been loved before
And if there's trouble I'll
Be beside her long before
The first teardrop ever falls

CHORUS

Last nite we talked for a long time
Last nite she let me walk her home
Last nite she let me hold her
Last nite I didn't have to spend alone
Last nite she let me kiss her
I kissed her I kissed her
