"Oh Boy"

I went by last night to pick up my things
Oh boy, ooh boy
Lately our songs had too many words to sing
Oh boy, ooh boy
It took all the strength from my knees to walk up the steps
Oh boy
It took all the courage I had to knock on the door
Oh boy
My heart was racing, the door opened so slow
I should hve run, but how could I go
All she had on was the radio-boy
Ooh boy
Without a word she called me in
Oh boy, ooh boy
Just one little step for me a chasm to span
Oh boy, ooh boy
We started dancing, God I couldn't believe how she felt
Oh boy
Rollin' and tumblin', fumblin' for my buttons and belt
The music was playing so soft and low
I should have run, but how could I go
All she had on was the radio-boy, ooh boy
Kisses like cherries put wings on my pain
Love coming down like sunshine on sugar cane
It took all the strength from my knees to walk up the steps
I took all the courage I had to knock on the door
My heart was racing, the door opened so slow
I should have run, but how could I go
All she had on ws the radio-boy
Ooh boy
