Oh, you graceful eagle that soar in the air
How I envy your chainless life
You are calling from your sky, living under the sun
Just riding the winds up high

Your cliff is your castle, you're nature's truly royal
A king in brown and gray
Look down on the foolish man, competing with time
Chasing his precious day

You're flying on wings of serenity
Into the blinding light
You're the majesty of freedom
Living life at its height

Oh, you graceful eagle that soar in the air
How I envy your chainless life
You are calling from your sky, living under the sun
Just riding the winds up high

You're flying on wings of serenity
Into the blinding light

You're the majesty of freedom
Living life at its height

You're flying on wings of serenity
You're soaring above the ground
You're the majesty of freedom
Tranquility is your crown

Oh, please let me follow you
On your journey to the clouds
Take me up on your wide wings
And show me your world

We will cross the skies
New horizons, we'll see
Cross the slumbering landscapes
And disappearing into the dawn

You're flying on wings of serenity

Into the blinding light
You're the majesty of freedom
Living life at its height

You're flying on wings of serenity
You're soaring above the ground
You're the majesty of freedom
Tranquility is your crown
