Tell me what you want to be,
don't hide it from me Tell me where you want to be,
and I'll take you there Tell me how you want to feel, don't keep it from me Tell me how it outta be through more than a stare Show me what you wanna be,
and don't hide it from me Show me where you wanna be,
and I'll take you there Show me how you want to feel don't keep it from Show me how it outta be through
more than a stare

I just want to see you And I just want to hear you
And I just need to feel you So stand up

Tell me who you are Tell me where you want to be
Tell me how you feel Show me how it outta be Take a little piece of me and hang it from the right tree Share a little piece of me and I'll keep you as a part of me

You are my all
You are my everything

Who are you, you're my everything
