Doctor Boring had a relationship with the drug company too
And I am half related to the soft-ness group [groove?]
PLC on TV today
Someone claimed their dog had been molested by a textile chemist
But life just bounces so don't you get worried at all
And life just bounces so don't you get worried at all The perscription's filled but I'm unsure of its contents
I sit back with a tight grip retina amazed
But life just bounces so don't you get worried at all
And life just bounces so don't you get worried at all
And green grow the hedgerows along the walls
And I see that my problems are really small [We're no rock group!

Come alive, brown varnish, mauve]
London is full of people leaving their homes
They got lacquered lamps in their beds and in their rooms
And the cops say don't you dare leave your home
I'll tellya
Life just bounces so don't you get worried at all
And life just bounces so don't you get worried at all
And Doctor Boring says you are very ill
And your top-knot is in the region of your soul
I was in a vortex I was headed for a Fall
I'll tellya
Life just bounces so don't you get worried at all
And all music bounces so don't you get worried at all
