What happened, between you and me
I thought I gave you everything that you wanted
Was I not enough, was I not there, was it all the lies I held inside
My Angel

I want to please and satisfy you,
But you turned on me, you turned on me
Was everything that I gave you not enough
You threw it all away, but it doesn't matter
Because in the end you'll always be

My Heartless Angel!
My Heartless Angel!

You forsaken me,
Killed all the feelings that I never had I'm broken up, I'm dead inside, I don't know what to do with myself
My Angel

My Heartless Angel!
My Heartless Angel!

I want to please and satisfy you,
But you turned on me, you turned on me
Was everything that I gave you not enough
You threw it all away, but it doesn't matter
Because in the end you'll always be

My Heartless Angel!
My Heartless Angel!
My Heartless Angel!
My Heartless Angel!
