I'm in a race for your heart,
But I tripped and fell.

And wouldn't you know I let down my guard,
Breath in exhale.

The clock is ticking away,
And I just wanted to say
I will never make the same mistake.

And if I don't win today,
I'll and find another way
Until your heart is mine to take.

And just slow down.

And don't let go,
Forget everything you think you know.

Sit still,
Forget everything I know you will.

I was on my way when my train derailed.
And I lost all hope when your ship set sail.

Let go forget everything you think you know.
There's so much to live for don't let go.

And all that I need now is some time to win back your heart.

And girl if you gave me just one last night,
That would give me a running start.

My mind is drifting away,
And girl I just wanted to say,
This guilt is like my shadow on a sun drenched day.

I think it's at least worth a try
So I can get out of July
And take this shadow far away.

And just slow down.

Don't let go,
Forget everything you think you know.

Sit still,
Forget everything I know you will.

I was on my way when my train derailed.
And I lost all hope when your ship set sail.

Let go forget everything you think you know.
There's so much to live for don't let go.

Why would you think this was the only way out?

I know there's no chance for you to love without a doubt.

But I think there's a chance for a little romance for you and I.

There's not a second chance if you don't.
This cannot be if you don't.
Darling I'm begging you don't let go.

Don't let go,
Forget everything you think you know.

Sit still,
Forget everything I know you will.

I was on my way when my train derailed.
And I lost all hope when you ship set sail.

Let go,
Forget everything you think you know.

There's so much to live for don't let go.
