when your working yourself out get in or get out I'm standing by myself and the room is so crowded just to let me out

I won't regret this anymore
all their songs have been sang all their lungs have been done time now for me to go
time now for start the show last night I had a dream that I did not wake up I lied in bed all night, till my eyes were shut I dreamed of you (I dreamed of you) but I'm so different from the person two ones now

start the show
