light a smoke for giving up on me and one more just cause they'll kill you soon. to my favorite liar (to my favorite scar): "i could have died with you" i hope you choke on those words and that bottle. ash out your insides. "when i said i loved you, i swear to god i lied". lately i've been thinking i hope you catch fire cause i wouldn't piss to put you out. i'm sunk so. hang yourself.
his smile is your rope. wrap it tight around your throat.
on the drive home with him joke about the kid you used to see (and his jealousy) breaking hearts has never looked so cool. as you wrap your car around a tree.
your make-up looks great on the steering wheel. right next to his teeth. the accident scene is called "you get what you deserve"
