Light that smoke yeah one for giving up on me
And one just 'cause they'll kill you,
Sooner than my expectations.
To my favorite liar, to my favorite scar.
I could have died with you

I hope you choke,
On those words that kiss that bottle.
Confess.

Now ask yourself,
Yeah out on the insides.
I said i loved you, but i lied.

Let's play this game,
Called 'when you catch fire.'
I wouldn't piss to put you out.
Stop burning bridges.
Drive off of them,
So i can forget about you.
So bury me in memory.
His smile's your rope,
So wrap it tight around your throat.

On the drive home,
Joke about the kid you used to see,
And his jealousy.
Breaking hearts has never looked so cool.
As when you wrap your car around a tree.
Your make-up looks great next to his teeth.

Let's play this game,
Called 'when you catch fire'
I wouldn't piss to put you out.
Stop burning bridges.
Drive off of them,
So i can forget about you.
So bury me in memory.
His smile's your rope.
So wrap it tight around your throat
