I took her around the evening bay.
She doesn't care what morning brings while she lays with me
And Every time I defend myself
I end up pushing you away a lifetime
Oh no(Oh no)

I started
To buy in
To all the things that everyone wanted me to be

But you just can't live by what people say.
I'm numb from all the things I've tried to be.
And all along you never turned away

I've let you down, I'm runnin' away
So many things I forgot to say
It's not right for you
I'm falling from the past
And throwing what we had
I've been putting all these burdens on you... I just want the pain to end!

But you just can't live by what people say.
I'm numb from all the things I've tried to be.
And all along you never turned away

Sinking in the problems I've made... Oh no.
Waste deep in the troubles we face... no more.
Can we reach the past again?

But you just can't live by what people say
I'm numb from all the things I've tried to be
And all along you never turned away
