We're all gonna die,
What's the point, What's the point,
We're all gonna die,
We're all gonna live,
So what's the point,
What's the point, we're all gonna die,
Y'all gotta live,
So what's the point,
what's the point, we're all gonna die,

Sometimes I don't have a choice,
Sometimes I can't hear my own voice,
And there isn't much I've learnt going to say,

Let's just turn on the Radio feel connected to the earth we'll ever grown,
I don't know where we are going,
It's turning me on,
(It's turning me on)
It's turning me on, that we may not live to see
tomorrow,
(It's turning me on)
That my last days could be with you.

We all wanna love,
So what's the point,
What's the point,
We all say goodbye,
Let's just turn on the radio feel connected to the
earth we'll ever grown,
I don't know where we are going,
It's turning me on,
(It's turning me on)
tomorrow,
(It's turning me on)
That my last days could be with you.

When we fall walking back tonight,
We'll brace the good times while they last,
And you'll do when we're still gotta lead,
This all just gotta end.

Let's just turn on the radio feel connected to the earth we'll ever grown,
I don't know where we are going,
And it's turning me on,
(It's turning me on)
tomorrow,
It's turning me on,
That my last days could be with you.
