Youâ€™ve found it out now I guess
I tried my best
What made you change your mind
If I was there at all
You seemed to think I once was there
And that my thoughts were not so blind

This place you talk about
Thatâ€™s so far out; itâ€™s good
I know Iâ€™ve been
If youâ€™re fine now Iâ€™m sick
From here you canâ€™t go back you know
And so I'll drive you from my mind

I'll drive you from my mind
I'll drive you from my mind
I'll drive you from my mind
I'll drive you from my mind

Your fear of love is great
So much you hate
And I can laugh at you
And those that you impress
By telling them how great it is
And those that you impress
By telling them how great it is
To have no one to love but you

No one to love but you
No one to love but you
No one to love but you
No one to love but you

I'll drive you from my mind
I'll drive you from my mind
I'll drive you from my mind
I'll drive you from my mind
