Country boy, ain't got no shoes
Country boy, ain't got no blues

Well, you work all day while you're waitin' to play
In the sun and the sand, with a face that's tan
But at the end of the day when your work is done
You ain't got nothin' but fun

Country boy, ain't got no wills
Country boy, you don't owe no bills

You take a wiggly worm and then you watch him squirm
While you put him on a hook and you drop him in a brook
If everything's gonna turn out right
You're gonna fry fish tonight

Country boy, you got a lot to lose
Country boy, how I wish I was in your shoes

Country boy, you got a shaggy dog
Country boy, up a hollow log

Well, he comes in a run when you pick up your gun
And with a shell or two and your dog and you
When you get your rabbit you'll skin his hide
He's gonna be good fried

Country boy, you got a lot to lose
Country boy, how I wish I was in your shoes

Country boy, you got work to do
Country boy, in the morning dew

You gotta plant the seed, you gotta cut the weeds
There's many a row you know you gotta hoe
When it's quittin' time, and your work is through
There's a lot of life in you

Country boy, you're lucky free
Country boy, I wish I was you and you was me
