When I saw the list of cities,
I couldn't wait to leave.
For six long years I've dreamed of this,
and I'm ready for anything.
Late nights at shows, and meeting ghosts and everything in between.
I'd sing these songs forever
if you know what they meant to me.
I woke up on the floor again,
and I'm only missing one thing.
These days I'd say we've got it all
but I'm ready for the long drive home
'Cause I can't wait to see you.
These days I'd say we've got it all
but I'm ready for the long drive home
'Cause I just can't wait to see you.
It was burning hot in Texas
but at least we made it alive
I've seen so many miles today,

and there's a thousand more to drive.
You'll never believe what happened in Michigan.
Don't even try.
These stories always end with,
"they were the best days of my life."
I woke up wishing you were here,
'cause you're all I can think of These days I'd say we've got it all
but I'm ready for the long drive home
'Cause I can't wait to see you.
These days I'd say we've got it all
but I'm ready for the long drive home
'Cause I just can't wait to see you.
It was the summer I won't forget with the friends I can't forget.
These are the songs I don't forget,
I don't forget, I don't forget.
