I can't keep running away from you,
And I know
I've gotta get the guts to get you
Right back in the ground where I found you.
If I reach inside will I find the truth?
I can't keep wearing myself out so I'll shed my skin and start again.
I wanna let you know

I've got a heart like a fucking machine,
and my blood is burning gasoline.
Tonight we're digging graves.
Tonight we radiate
and my life's about to change.
I'm kicking out the skeletons tonight.
You're no longer welcome in my closet anymore.
