

Falling Blind "Complex Story"

Visit "Complex Story" on MotoLyrics.com

It's a complex story, this heart is carrying when it's closer to you When I'm out for glory, I cant care for anyone, and that includes you

This is an honest truth, without a doubt, the heart that I have to give
Is tattered and broken now
I've got a fight for us, but I'm falling down

When I want this emptiness inside to surely fade, but I cant get close to you.
Oh I want this emptiness inside to go, its possible but I cant escape, I wanna fight for you

This is an honest truth, without a doubt, the heart that I have to give
is tattered and broken now
I've got a fight for us, we're falling down I've got a heart for us, it's calling out

Say you wanted more, than I bargained for Wanna hear you say, be mine forever
