

Falling Blind "The Intent"

Visit "The Intent" on MotoLyrics.com

Your intentions you hide, not seen through untrained eyes

You can't be fake when it blows up in your face

Finally get the chance to say "see ya"

It's common we all, take caution, we all will fall

I can tell you wanted to leave me here, but you say

"come back"

I thought I knew you knew love was unconditional

Something you dreamt of, but now I know its all just lies

Something you used to try and take my life

Its a common excuse, take caution cause it's no use

I can tell you wanted to leave me here to crawl

Part of my energy was thinkin that I couldn't believe

That where we are hearing the truth, you'll say
