

Falling In Reverse

My life is like a video game,
Trying hard to beat the stage.
All while I am still collecting coins.
Trying hard to save the girl,

Obstacles, I'm jumping hurdles.
I'm growing up to be a big boy.

I battle with the evil ways,
I travel far, and try and save,
Sorry but your princess isn't here.
I take a rest, I push the pause,
Level up, and move along
In hopes that the next stage I will clear.
(I fucking passed asshole!)

I'm just trying to keep from dying

It's just a game that we play
And for heaven's sakes
Looking for a better way to play it!
Life is for keeping score and forever more,
Stop complaining and start changing it.

Today I went to therapy,
Told him my embarrassing
Issues that I'm having with my life.
He told me that I need to change,
Life is not a video game.
So stop playing and open up your eyes

I'm just trying to keep from dying

It's just a game that we play
And for heavens sakes
Looking for a better way to play it!
Life is for keeping score and forever more,
Stop complaining and start changing it.

Don't talk about it,
Just be about it,

Don't ever doubt it even when your brain is clouding.
I may be crazy,
But life's amazing
And through it all even with your problems facing.
So just know its okay.

My life is like a video game,
Trying hard to beat the stage.
All while I am still collecting coins.
