When you see your breath
In the frozen night
When your hope is on the guard
There's a rushing threat
There's a new design
When the poison fills your heart

Broken from the shattered hopes
And breathless from the stare
Standing in this lonely room
I can see you there

Lights from the waters
Have swept me away
So say your goodbyes now
This will say
Drink from the water
It swept me away
So say your goodbyes now
This will say

Let the tidal pull
And the neon lights
Let it spill across this place
Like a deepened hole
From your glossy eyes
There's a flame that marks the race

Broken from the shattered hopes
And breathless from the stare
Standing in this lonely room
I can see you there

Lights from the waters
Have swept me away
So say your goodbyes now
This will say
[2x] Drink from the water
It swept me away
So say your goodbyes now
This will say

Can you hear?
Whispering this time
Dream this fear
Are you listening?

Lights from the waters
Have swept me away
So say your goodbyes now
This will say
[2x] Drink from the water
It swept me away
So say your goodbyes now
This will say
